Rossiter Runs To Run For A Cure Victory

ROXBURY – Noah Rossiter, 17, of New Milford edged Stosh Davis, 14, of New Milford and Jeff Sheldon, 31, of Southbury to captured first place in the 11th annual Roxbury Run For A Cure Thursday, Nov. 24, over a rolling 3.0-mile course.

Rossiter was clocked in 17:08, just four seconds faster than Davis, who took second place.

Davis was the champion in the recent Bob Lewis MidAutumn Championship at the Roxbury Road Race Series.

Sheldon, who is a two-time season champion in the Roxbury Road Race Series, placed third in 17:13, one second behind Davis.

Dawn Riebeling, 26, was the first female finisher, taking 16th overall in 21:02.

There were 148 finishers in the run, which included a trip up the steep hill on Chalybes Road.

There also were many entrants in the children's .5-mile run and several walkers that completed the 3.0-mile course.

The Roxbury Congregational Church, the Roxbury Recreation Commission and the Roxbury Road Race Series, which co-sponsored the race, raised $2,190 from the $10 entry fees.

The proceeds will go to the cancer center at New Milford Hospital and the Relay For Life, which is sponsored by the American Cancer Society.
