LoSacco, Wolfe Prevail At 12th Annual Roxbury Run For A Cure

ROXBURY –A veteran standout from the area road race series and a high finisher in the recent girls' state cross country championships strode to victory Thanksgiving morning by conquering the steep hill on Chalybes Road and the rolling terrain through the other parts of 12th Annual 3.0-mile Run For A Cure.

Mark LoSacco, 43, of New Milford captured first place in 17-minutes, 23-seconds.

LoSacco, who has been running the races in the Roxbury Road Race Series for several years, outpaced Jeff Sheldon, 32, of Southbury, a two-time season champion in the series. Sheldon placed second in 17:50.

Clara Wolfe, 16, who placed eighth at last month in the state Class 'S' cross country championships for Shepaug Valley High School-Washington, was the top female finisher and took 13th overall with a time of 19:48.

LoSacco and Wolfe each received a plaque for winning their respective divisions in the overall field of 169 finishers.

Additionally, there were another 76 participants combined in the children's race and the 2.8-mile walk, generating a grand total of 245 entrants.

The race, which had a $10 entry fee, collected more than $2,000, which will be donated to the cancer center at New Milford Hospital and the American Cancer Society's Relay For Life.

The Run For A Cure is sponsored by the Roxbury Congregational Church, the Roxbury Recreation Commission and the Roxbury Road Race Series. The race starts and finishes near the church on Route 317.
