Phillips, Krebs Prevail In Roxbury 4.3-Mile Run

ROXBURY – Taylor Phillips, 22, edged Paul Malek, 21, to win the overall title Saturday, Aug. 10, at the Roxbury Road Race Series and Theresa Krebs, 43, strode to her 19th victory of the season in the women's division.

Phillips was timed in 25-minutes, 9-seconds – a 5:51 pace – with Malek just a fraction of a second behind in second place.

Krebs, a Roxbury resident, took 16th overall with a clocking of 30:35.

The weekly series will resume Saturday, Aug. 17, at 8:30 a.m. with a 7.2-mile run. Shorter, alternate courses also will be offered.

The Two For The Show charity run will be held Saturday, Sept. 7, at 8:30 a.m. There will be a $5 entry fee that can be paid that morning from 7 to 8:20. The proceeds will go to address autism and juvenile diabetes.

The top overall male and female runner will each receive a $10 gift certificate to an area running store.

The races, which are sanctioned by the Roxbury Recreation Commission, start and finish near the Everett Hurlburt Community Park on Apple Lane.
