

Geissinger-Tuttle, Masopust Prevail At Run For A Cure

ROXBURY – Dylan Geissinger-Tuttle, 17, who runs at Nonnewaug High School in Woodbury, and Alison Masopust, 31, of Morris were the respective champions of the male and female divisions at the 14th edition of the Run For A Cure.

Geissinger-Tuttle covered the 3.0-mile layout in 17-minutes, 23-seconds to take the overall crown. Bill Goodman, 36, of Middlebury placed second in 17:48 in the field of 109 finishers.

Masopust was seventh overall with a clocking of 19:31.

The race and accompanying walk and children’s run raised $1,675 from the $10 per runner entry fees. The proceeds will be divided evenly between the American Cancer Society’s Relay For Life Shepaug Valley Chapter and the cancer center at New Milford Hospital.

The event is sponsored by the Roxbury Congregational Church - near where it starts and finishes on Route 317 - the Roxbury Recreation Commission and the Roxbury Road Race Series.
