Parker, Nahom Capture Run For A Cure Titles

ROXBURY – Shepaug Valley High School-Washington ace Sean Parker, a Roxbury resident, added the championship in the 16th annual Run For A Cure to his recent title in the state Class ‘S’ Championship cross-country meet.

Parker covered the rolling 3.0-mile loop Thursday, November 24, Thanksgiving Day, in 16-minutes, 26-seconds to win over runner-up Eli Nahom, 15, who was clocked in 16:31.

Mia Nahom, 17m annexed the women’s title and placed ninth overall in the field of 94 finishers with a time of 20:10.

The course included a trip up the steep hill on Chalybes Road and finished near the Roxbury Congregational Church on Church Street along the Route 317 corridor.

Between the primary run, the walkers and a children’s race, the event netted $1,294, which will be divided between the cancer center at New Milford Hospital and the American Cancer Society’s Relay For Life.

The Run For A Cure is sponsored by the Roxbury Congregational Church, the Roxbury Recreation Commission and the Roxbury Road Race Series.
