Consalvo, Danay Add To Victory Collection

ROXBURY –Tommy Consalvo, 24, and Kateri Danay, 25, again delivered blue-ribbon performances in taking their respective divisions over a 3.7-mile course at the weekly Roxbury Road Runners Club series.

Consalvo of Brookfield, who ran at Quinnipiac University, placed first overall in the Saturday, June 17, event with 20-minute, 46-second clocking – a 5:37-per-mile pace. It was his fifth win in the series during 2023.

Jeff Sheldon, 43, of Southbury was second in 23:26 over the route, which included a down the long incline on Ranney Hill Road and up the steep hill on Chalybes Road. Sheldon is a former two-time season champion in the series.

Danay annexed his sixth victory this season in the women's division. She took 12th overall with a time of 29:24.

The series will continue on Saturday, June 24, at 8:30 a.m. with a 5.7-mile course that will include a trip in both directions along River Road.

The race will start and finish near the Everett B. Hurlburt Community Park at 18 Apple Lane.

On Saturday, July 8, at 8:30 a.m. there will be a 3.0-mile event that will benefit the Roxbury Land Trust.

The race will start and finish near the Roxbury Land Trust preserve on River Road. It is dedicated to Bill Burley, the former educator who initiated the series in 1977.

Runners can enter any of the races through the $25 season membership. They also can compete by completing the weekly waiver form. If they have a timing chip, the fee is $2. If they do not have a timing chip, the cost is $5. Youth runners and former and current first responders and members of the military can enter for free after completing the weekly waiver form.

The races are sanctioned by the Roxbury Recreation Commission.
